COLLEGE NOTICE

CHIEF CO-ORDINATING OFFICER

Dr John Green, in his continuing role as Chief Co-ordinating Officer, will support the Faculty of Medicine in its future developments working with the Deputy Principal, Professor Sir Anthony Newman Taylor, and the Faculty Operating Officer, Mr Philip Blissett, on a range of major initiatives.

He will also provide significant input to the ICT Advisory Boards responsible for 'Organisational Intelligence' and 'Research Management'.

Dr Green will continue to have responsibility for the College Research Office.
