COLLEGE NOTICE

NEW ACADEMIC REGISTRAR

Mr Robert Westaway BSc, MSc, MA will be joining the College on 17 November as the new Academic Registrar in succession to Mr Vernon McClure, who will be retiring from the College at the end of September after 23 years of service.

After an early career in British Rail, Mr Westaway joined Imperial College as Assistant Registrar in 1984. There followed a number of promotional moves within the Registry function in different universities culminating in his appointment as Academic Registrar at Goldsmiths College, University of London from which he re-joins Imperial. Mr Richard Barnard, who has managed the organisational change process within Registry, will be returning to his substantive post as Manager of the Undergraduate Medical Office within the Faculty of Medicine.
