COLLEGE NOTICE

CO-DIRECTOR OF THE LONDON CENTRE FOR NANOTECHNOLOGY

The College is pleased to announce that Dr David McComb, Reader in Materials Characterisation has been appointed as Co-Director of the London Centre for Nanotechnology (LCN) in succession to Professor Tim Jones, who has joined the University of Warwick. Dr McComb's tenure runs from 1st April 2007 to 31st March 2010 and he will be working closely with Professor Gabriel Aeppli, his co-Director at University College London in leading the activities of the LCN.

The LCN is a multi-disciplinary research centre, bringing together the strong capability in underlying disciplines - engineering, physical sciences and biomedicine - which are bridged by nanotechnology, at Imperial College London and University College London.
