COLLEGE NOTICE

IMPERIAL COLLEGE TEACHING FELLOWS 2007

At its meeting on 1 November 2006 the Senate agreed that the scheme of Awards for Excellence in Teaching, reinstated on a biennial basis in 1999 as a means of continuing to raise the profile of teaching in Imperial College, would operate annually.

This scheme includes the annual election of up to three Imperial College Teaching Fellows, members of the academic staff judged to have been most outstanding in the quality, organisation and presentation of their teaching. Of the three Fellowships, one may carry the title of Teaching Fellow for Innovation, in specific recognition of the most innovative contribution to teaching and assessment.

The Adjudicating Panel has elected the following to be the Imperial College Teaching Fellows for 2007:

Professor John Cosgrove
Professor Milija N. Pavlovic

Earth Science and Engineering
Civil and Environmental Engineering

The Teaching Fellows will be presented to the Chairman of the Court and Council at one of the Commemoration Day ceremonies in the Royal Albert Hall on Wednesday, 24th October 2007.
