Programme Overview
The MSc in International Management (MIM) is offered over 12 months full-time. The programme content reflects the contemporary and relevant management skills necessary for managing in turbulent environments. In particular, the programme will equip the participants with conceptual and practical tools to enable them to analyse and solve challenging problems. The programme comprises 8 compulsory modules, and a choice of electives that run across the spring and summer terms including modules in global partner universities studying abroad. You are required to take the three Leadership in Action modules which run over all three terms. The Leadership in Action modules comprise a mixture of lectures, coaching sessions and workshops, a week abroad working with local companies on an impact consulting project, and a 2-day trip to a European city for a community build. Alongside your academic modules, you take a compulsory Career Development module throughout the year. The Career Development module consists of a series of workshops that support you in defining your own ambitious and realistic career goals and equips you with the knowledge and skills you will need to achieve these goals and be successful in the future. Before you start the programme, you are given access to on-line interactive primers in Accounting, Maths, Data Analysis, Finance and Study Skills in addition to an online Careers primer (Foundations for Careers Success). These modules do not contribute to the calculation of the final award but are designed to provide you with a common base of knowledge before starting the programme. Teaching Assistant support is provided online over the summer. Financial Management, Business Economics, Decision Analytics and Applied Corporate Finance face-to-face support classes are provided as part of the programme. You are required to complete the Plagiarism Awareness primer as part of your programme. Further academic support is provided through workshops delivered by the Library (e.g. RefWorks, Plagiarism Awareness and Skills for Report Writing). You also have access to the Business School's Global Skills Development consultants who provide tailored team-building workshops and language support sessions promoting cross-cultural working and global awareness. If you secure an extended Work Placement opportunity (4-6 months in duration) you will be able to transfer to the 16 month Programme Option in consultation with the Academic Director.

Learning & Teaching Approach

Learning and Teaching Delivery Methods
 The programme combines academic rigour and practical relevance. There is a careful balance of teaching and learning, individual and group work. Case study methodology and class-based discussions are used to strengthen the conceptual, analytical and problem-solving skills of the participants in real situations. In addition, there are regular seminars by external expert speakers.

Independent learning
 You are expected to spend significant time on independent study outside of face-to-face contact time. This will typically include accessing resources online, reading journal articles and books, undertaking research in the library, reviewing lecture notes and watching lecture recordings, working on individual and group projects, working on coursework assignments and revising for exams.

Active Learning
 There is a strong focus on active learning throughout the programme with many compulsory modules including participation as part of their assessment, and a flipped-classroom approach for Financial Management. In addition, all parts of the Leadership in Action modules include workshops to enable you to apply your learning as you progress through the modules.

Projects and placements

You are required to undertake an impact consulting project abroad as part of your Leadership in Action Phase 2 module, and a community build as part of Leadership in Action Phase 3.

You may also choose to take either a Consulting Project, Social Project Study or Work Placement as an elective.

The Consulting Projects are real-world projects proposed by external companies. You take on the role of junior consultants for 4 weeks and present your solutions to a company representative and faculty member at the end of the module.

Alternatively, you can find a Work Placement and work in a company for a minimum of 4 weeks in the summer after your on-campus electives are over, applying the skills and knowledge you have acquired in a work environment. You will submit a reflective piece at the end of the module describing the learning you have gained during this period.

If you are interested in working for a social enterprise or an NGO, you can also opt for a Social Project. This can take the form of either a piece of consultancy or can be a work placement inside the organisation.

Overall Workload

The overall workload consists of face-to-face sessions and independent learning. While the actual contact hours may vary according to the elective modules students choose to study, the following gives an indication of how much time they will need to allocate to different activities at each level of the programme. At Imperial, each ECTS taken equates to an expected total study time of 25 hours. Therefore, the expected total study time is 2,250 hours per year.

On average during the year, students are expected to spend around 25% of their time in the classroom, 50% on independent study and group work, 17% on careers and personal development and 8% of their time on other activities (e.g. social, leisure, clubs). Class sizes are typically 60 students, and group work is normally conducted in syndicate teams of 5-6 students.

Assessment Strategy

Assessment Methods

Modules will be assessed by one or more of the following types of assessment methods:

- Essays
- Continuous assessments
- Written Examinations/Tests
- Multiple Choice Tests
- Formal Presentations
- Reports
- Case Studies
- Class Participation

Assessed modules comprise coursework that is designed to help you master key elements of the subject and, in part, to help prepare you for the final assessment, which is typically a report or examination. Examinations are scheduled throughout the year, generally at the end of the term the module is taught or at the start of the subsequent term. Exact timings are detailed in the programme overview section above. The format of examinations may be written, computer-based or timed remote assessment.

Coursework weighting varies among modules. The various assessments allow you to demonstrate that you have met the intended learning outcomes for each module and these collectively contribute towards your achievement of the programme's learning outcomes, detailed above.

Assessments are designed to ensure that you have acquired the core knowledge and skills expected of a Business School graduate and that you are able to apply these in your career aspirations upon completion of the programme

Academic Feedback Policy
Feedback can take many forms. During lectures and classes, you will receive verbal feedback on the ideas that you contribute to discussions and on in-class presentations. The online teaching materials contain exercises with built-in, immediate, feedback that is received when you submit an answer. The School aims to provide feedback on coursework within two weeks. This will be sent in written form to the individual or the group, as appropriate. Academic staff may also provide verbal feedback of a general nature in class or posted to our virtual learning environment. Office hours offered on all modules also provide an opportunity for individual feedback. The School aims to provide provisional examination grades 25 days from the end of the exam period. General feedback to the cohort is provided on examination performance, usually in written form. If you need to resit an examination, you may also approach the module leader for feedback on your performance in the first sitting. You will be provided with a percentage grade for coursework and examinations with the final numerical mark only confirmed after the Board of Examiners Meeting and then released by Registry. Grades received during the year are deemed provisional until confirmed by the Final Board of Examiners. The College's Policy on Academic Feedback and guidance on issuing provisional marks to students is available at: www.imperial.ac.uk/about/governance/academic-governance/academic-policy/exams-and-assessment/
