

Julia Anderson Training Programme – Salary and benefits

A fixed-term contract and salary is offered at Professional Services Level 1a, Spine Point 1, based on £22,309 per annum, or equivalent to £1,859 per month.

As a trainee, you will be employed as Imperial College London staff which would give you access to the following additional benefits (depending on the duration of your training post):

- Opportunity to enrol in lunchtime or evening classes from the Centre for Languages, Culture and Communication (subject to availability).
- Discounts and cashback on personal purchases from a wide variety of online and high street stores via ‘Perks at Work’.
- Discounted membership at the College’s state-of-the-art gyms, as well as the opportunity to join and participate in the many student clubs and sporting societies. Find out more about sport and health lifestyles.
- Free professional and confidential help from Confidential Care, the College's Employee Assistance Provider, 24 hours a day 7 days a week, accessible to the trainee and members of their household.
- A wide range of discounts at local businesses, ranging from half-priced entry into exhibitions in South Kensington museums, to discounts at local cafes and restaurants.
- Annual leave (pro-rata) in addition to public holidays & College Closures.
- Access to LinkedIn Learning and Imperial’s online training and development resources for the duration of your training post.
- (Where applicable) Access to the pension services provided by SAUL, including a generous contribution from the College.